TOUR THE HISTORY OF SPORTS IN OHIO

The Ohio History Center is celebrating our state's rich history in athletics with a special temporary exhibit entitled "Truly a Champion of Sports."

This display covers over a hundred years of sports history in Ohio, from early baseball days and Jesse Owens' track and field accomplishments, to the beginnings of pro football and pioneers in auto racing, women's basketball, boxing, and more. See Lebron James' first basketball jersey and learn about the Ohio Roller Derby.

We will have a special guided tour just for our club on Sunday, Sept 22. Please save that afternoon to join us for this unique experience – keep an eye out for details by email and on our website soon!

Donations to our Scholarship Fund # 600137 are always welcome and appreciated!
